Title I Parent Advisory Council

Dear Parent/Guardian,

You are invited to join the Parent Advisory Council (PAC)!

The Council is composed of parent representatives who are willing to have an open conversation about Title I, parent involvement and student success. Together we will work to build stronger communication between families and the school, share ideas to support learning, and promote meaningful and active parent involvement.

We encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity to become actively engaged in your child's education and support efforts to improve the home-school partnership. To join the PAC, complete the application below and return to your child's homeroom teacher. For more information, contact your child's Title I teacher.

Thank you for helping make this the most successful year ever for all students!
